The tendency to present scientific text in the passive voice is fading Most Wiley Blackwell journals and readers now accept use of the active voice Unless the journal has a strict requirement for the active or passive voice follow the authors' preference as long as this is consistent within the manuscript Service improvement in health care onlinelibrary.wiley.com Service improvement In this context service improvement is nothing new and its configuration is likely to change again yet its central principles remain constant and need to be applied and introduced to many organisations if a real focus on quality is to be achieved This is Service
